10th Annual CSA Legislative Reception

On Wednesday evening, January 17, county supervisors and elected officials from across the state were joined by nearly 50 state legislators to honor the state and county partnership at the annual CSA Legislative Reception. Supervisors were delighted to see so many legislators expressing their commitment to counties throughout the state.

CSA President and Pinal County Supervisor Anthony Smith expressed his appreciation for all those who attended, "In our positions as both legislators and county officials, we are partners in serving the same people, the citizens of Arizona. We are grateful to the legislators and elected officials who work with us on issues important to the constituents of our state."

Arizona Attorney General Addresses County Supervisors

During the January CSA Board of Directors meeting, Attorney General Mark Brnovich spoke with the board on a number of issues including the continuing national and state opioid crisis. He discussed the ongoing efforts of the Attorney General's office to work through both criminal and civil procedures to combat the distribution of excess opioids throughout the state. Attorney General Brnovich also indicated his strong support for increasing public awareness of the issue - mainly through educational campaigns regarding the dangers of drug use. To accomplish this, he urged all levels of government to devote needed resources to the crisis.

House Appropriations Subcommittee Hears Presentation on County Priorities

On Tuesday, the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Welfare heard presentations on county funding and the Department of Revenue. Joint Legislative Budget Committee (JLBC) staff presented an overview of the JLBC baseline budget and executive budget recommendations on both issues, with the county funding presentation focusing on the revenues that counties receive from the state.

Craig Sullivan, CSA's Executive Director, briefed the committee members on county priorities including: eliminating recession era state cost shifts to counties, addressing the Elected Officials Retirement Plan (EORP) crisis, and continuing to provide in-lieu lottery funds and county flexibility language. At the end of the presentations, the committee members discussed a number of issues, including the current state cost shift to counties to partially pay for the Department of Juvenile Corrections.

Maricopa County Appoints New State Senator for LD 21

This week, the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors appointed Rick Gray, as the new State Senator for Legislative District 21. Senator Gray will replace former Senator Debbie Lesko, who stepped aside to run for an open U.S. Congressional seat. District 21 encompasses much of northwest Maricopa County including Peoria, El Mirage, and Sun City. Senator Gray used to serve as a State Representative in Legislative District 21, including time as the House Majority Whip and Chairperson of the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee. He is currently a small business owner.

"Rick knows his way around the Capitol" said District 4 Supervisor Clint Hickman, whose supervisorial district encompasses the legislative district. "As the House Majority Whip, he had experience building relationships and pushing through an agenda to benefit District 21 and the entire state. I'm confident he'll take what he learned and represent the Northwest Valley well in the Senate."

"I've been serving this community ever since I moved here in 2006, whether in the legislature, on community boards, or in other roles" Senator Gray said. "I look at this appointment as a continuation of that service, and I'm grateful for the opportunity."

As required by law, the Board selected Senator Gray from a list of three candidates submitted by the Legislative District 21 Precinct Committeemen. Senator Gray will serve through 2018.
